

National Art School is seeking expressions of interest from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

NAS First People's Scholarship Application

Generously supported by a philanthropic donor and the National Art School, the NAS First People's scholarship covers full tuition fees for the 3 year Bachelor of Fine Art program.

Two scholarships are offered to commencing students each year.

Aim:

To provide Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students with the opportunity to contribute toward increasing the number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander undertaking Higher Education Studies in the Fine Arts .

Eligibility:

Applicants must hold a current offer for a place in the degree program through UAC (or have an application in place), and be able to supply confirmation of Aboriginality.

Offers: Offers will be made to the 2 students who rank highest in their entry interview and portfolio submission. successful applicants in early January 2022.

PERSONAL DETAILS:

Name:
Address:
Current School:
Phone Number:

Checklist:

Proof of heritage attached. (see Information required on page 2 & 3)

Signature		Date
-----------	--	------	--