- Current BFA or MFA students.

PLEASE NOTE: APPLICATIONS CLOSE 5PM, Friday 30 September 2022

About

Nomad Brewing Company is issuing five new small batch limited release beers by the end of 2021 as part of their art series program. As the National Art School's beverage partner, Nomad is inviting NAS students to submit artworks to feature on each beer label design.

Selection Criteria

The prizes will be awarded to applicants:

- for a clever concept that translates to a small scale
- who demonstrate a record of artistic achievement and dedication to their practice;
- who, in the opinion of the selection panel, would benefit from such an opportunity at this stage of their career.

Applications

- All applicants must complete an application form
- All applications must submit a jpeg of their artwork for the beer label

Conditions

- The focus of the competition is to feature your artwork, we are not looking for you create a beer label
- All applicants must agree to Nomad placing their logo on the centre of the label, which may be placed on top of your artwork. Please look at the previous examples of this and ensure your design will accommodate this <http://www.nomadbrewingco.com.au/blog/>

Please note that where an Artist's work is selected as the winner of the competition for reproduction of the Nomad beer can label, the Artist remains the owner of the artwork and provides copyright permission for the National Art School and Nomad Brewing Co. to utilise the selected artwork image for product labels and product advertising during the duration of the project term until June 2023.
